2025 Winter Camp !

12/22 ~ 12/26

Hosted by: Kyotolesson

An experience that stimulates children creatively, intellectually, and physically.

Each day is a new experience!

Who:
- Ages 5+
- Applicants must possess a basic level of academic English.

Times: 9am ~ 3pm
Cost: ¥12,000 per day or ¥48,000 for 5 days

Optional programming classes
Times: 3pm ~ 5pm
Cost: ¥6,000 per day or ¥24,000 for 5 days

AIC Families receive

10% OFF

on ALL camp fees

+

¥10,000 credit to use on weekly Kyoto Lesson classes!

Where: Community Lab N5.5
529 Izumicho, Shimogyo Ward, Kyoto, 600-8188

Register here!

https://kyotolesson.com/reg/camp/aic

Use this promo code at registration!
AIC_10PERC_OFF

Literature

Students will develop their English through various forms of literature and fun activities.

Monday: Mystery Day

Student Goals

- Develop listening comprehension through clues and suspense, and practice speaking through storytelling and collaborative problem-solving.

Activities

- Classroom mystery narration
- Detective roleplay and secret codes

Tuesday: Autobiography Day

Student Goals

- Practice self-expression using past tense and personal vocabulary, and build confidence by sharing real and imagined life experiences.

Activities

- Life map drawings and presentations
- Future biography writing

Wednesday: Fiction Day

Student Goals

- Strengthen storytelling and sequencing skills while creating characters, building plots, and imagining new worlds.

Activities

- Story circle and discussion
- Story and character creation

Thursday: Poetry Day

Student Goals

- Explore rhyme, rhythm, and descriptive language while developing listening skills and confidence through creative writing and performance.

Activities

- Rhyme time and poetry jam
- Collaborative group poem

Friday: Folk Tales Day

Student Goals

- Appreciate cultural stories and morals while building vocabulary, sequencing skills, and expressive storytelling.

Activities

- Folk tales from around the world
- Story reenactment and sequencing
- Original folk tale creation